Background on Wyatt Academy:

Wyatt Academy is a K-8 public charter school located just northeast of downtown Denver. Wyatt Academy was established in 1998 by a group of community leaders who felt that the neighborhood deserved a better option for elementary and middle school, following the closure of several district-run schools. After a decade of strong performance, Wyatt Academy experienced a decline in performance starting in the 2011-12 school year, necessitating several significant changes. In 2015-16, the elementary school within Wyatt produced a second straight year of improvement and achieved a "meets expectation" rating on the Growth portion of the Denver School Performance Framework. At the same time, performance in the middle school has not improved. Based on the differentiated needs of K-5 vs. 6-8 students, the Wyatt Board of Trustees is now seeking to hire a separate principal to oversee each portion of the school. The Elementary Principal will oversee all functions within the K-5 grades, serving approximately 260 students in 2017-18, and will report directly to the Wyatt Board.
